Your Privacy is Important to configure8. Protecting your privacy is really important to us. With this in mind, we will protect your Personal Information in accordance with our Privacy Policy which may be found at <https://www.configure8.io/privacy>.

Each Party shall comply with any and all governmental laws, rules, directives, regulations or orders that are applicable to a particular Party's performance under this Agreement ("Applicable Laws") concerning the privacy and protection of information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person that is protected by Applicable Laws with respect to privacy where the individual resides ("Personal Information"). Customer will be solely responsible for providing any notices required by Applicable Law to, and receiving any consents and authorizations required by Applicable Law from, persons whose Personal Information may be included in Customer Data.

Except for limited Personal Information contained in information about Customer that Customer provides to us in connection with the creation or administration of its configure8 account, such as first and last name, user name and email address of an authorized user or Customer's billing contact (collectively, "Account Data"), configure8 does not require Personal Information for Customer's access and use of the Services. Customer shall limit Personal Information in Account Data to only that necessary for the creation and administration of its configure8 account. With regard to Customer Data, except as may otherwise be expressly provided in applicable Supplemental Terms, Customer shall not use the Services to process any Sensitive Information and shall use reasonable efforts to restrict the inclusion of other Personal Information in Customer Data.

Without limiting this section and any applicable Supplemental Terms, if Customer believes Customer Data may include the Personal Information or Personal Data of natural persons located in the European Economic Area and/or California and wishes to execute a Data Processing Addendum ("DPA") pursuant to the GDPR and/or CCPA, Customer may do so by submitting a request by email to privacy@configure8.io. Promptly following configure8's receipt of Customer's request, configure8 will send Customer a DPA ready for execution.

As used in the aforementioned paragraph related to GDPR, "Personal Data" has the meaning assigned to it in the General Data Protection Regulation 2016 / 679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing of Directive 95/46/EC ("GDPR").

Customer acknowledges nothing in this Paragraph removes or lessens Customer's obligations with respect to Personal Information under the Agreement.

Customer will be responsible for responding to consumer requests in relation to Covered Information (each, a "Consumer Request"). If configure8 receives a Consumer Request then, to the extent legally permissible, configure8 will advise the consumer to submit the Consumer Request to Customer, and Customer agrees that configure8 may confirm to a consumer that the Consumer Request relates to Customer. To the extent Customer is unable through its use of the Service to address a particular Consumer Request, configure8 will, upon Customer's written request and taking into account the nature of the Covered Information, provide reasonable assistance in addressing the Consumer Request (provided configure8 is legally permitted to do so and that Customer has verified the request in accordance with the CCPA).

As used in the aforementioned paragraphs regarding CCPA, "Commercial Purpose", "Consumer", "Personal Information", "Sell", and "Service Provider" have the meanings assigned to them in the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018, sections 1798.100 through 1798.199 of the California Civil Code ("CCPA").
